Who i am in christ ephesians 1.

In the midst of many voices in our head that make war to our identity, let's forget about who we are in Christ. I need to remind me every day that my identity does not reside in my mistakes, in my struggles, in my embarrassing moments, in those discouraging negative voices in my head, etc. Satan constantly fights believers to make us lose sight of our true identity. God is constantly pouring the grace of him and remembering us. He constantly reminds me of not dwelling on my failures, to receive the grace of him and move forward. When those voices tell you that you were misunderstood by everyone, God reminds you that he understands you. When we feel you didn't love, we are remembered that God loves us deeply and unconditionally. When we are swallowed up by shame, God reminds us that Christ took our shame about the Cross. You are not defined by those the world says you are. You are defined by Chi Christ says you are. In him he is your true identity. Quotations Å «Out of Christ are weak; Inside of Christ I'm strong.
